

In response to the Call from our respective Chapters, we are invited by the Australasian Josephite Justice Network to consolidate the issues that we have focused on over the past few years.....

Keep the Momentum Going

Right to a Home

Remember

- Homelessness is everyone's responsibility.
- can affect anyone.
- includes people who are
 - Sleeping rough
 - Staying in temporary, unstable or substandard accommodation.

"God wants us by every means in our power to lead others to life."

Mary MacKillop

Recognise

- The causes of homelessness: shortage of affordable housing; long term unemployment; mental health issues; substance abuse and relationship breakdown.
- The Australian Federal State and Territory Governments have pledged to halve homelessness by 2020.

Rectify

- Become familiar with "The Road Home" A National Approach to Reducing Homelessness. Available www.fahcsia.gov.au or hard copy phone 1800 774 055.
- Contact your local Federal and State Members and ask what your State is doing to achieve this goal.
- Write to the Prime Minister and Tanya Plibersek (the Minister for Housing) congratulating them on this national approach to homelessness and assure them of your support. (PO Box 6022 Parliament House Canberra. ACT 2600.)
