PRESENCE

To know that
'within each of you is the unspeakably
beautiful beat of the Sacred' (John Phillip Newell).

GIVING THE GIFT OF LISTENING

Richard Brooke

- Giving the gift of listening starts with you setting aside, for the moment, your agenda to be sourced in a conversation
- Giving the gift of listening invites listening with your body, your heart and your intuition
- Giving the gift of listening requires one to be aware of the filters we bring with us
- Giving the gift of listening uses appropriate questions – questions for clarification or to further the conversation down a path
- Giving the gift of listening honours another person.

Passion

Attentive to the cry of the Earth and the cry
of children

Courage

Persevering
in the face of life's challenges

Therese Quinn rsj

Compassion

Who will comfort
my people?

Hospitality

Thank God
you have come

Humility

It is God's Work

Being the Presence of Love

- The wider church will have the need, indeed the right, to know Mary's particular spirit and charism.
- All who commit themselves to living in the Josephite Spirit are summoned to model her life in their life and to keep all that she stood for alive in our day.
- Your manner of living, your mission and ministry, your approach to service must breathe her spirit, embody her charism
- James Fitzpatrick omi

*You are meant to give new life,
new space, new stretch to the charisms of the spirit* Joan Chittister
