Living in the Pattern of the Paschal Mystery – Good Friday to Easter Sunday

Taking time to name our deaths, losses and grief of our Good Fridays and our Holy Saturdays in order to move into our Easter Sundays with Christ. We need to “grapple with the timeless, haunting questions of suffering and death which gnaw at the heart … and the need for transformation to which these call us.” (Ronald Rolheiser, “The Holy Longing.”) A guided retreat with some options for spiritual accompaniment with

’Come and See

This retreat invites you, using the metaphor of the open door, to enter your inner space more deeply. To acknowledge both your vulnerable self and your own inner strength to constantly grow in love. We will use the work of writers such as Joyce Rupp and Brenée Brown. Thus, through stillness and silence we will open ourselves further to the contemplative dimension of life and love.

These words, “Remain in my Love” form part of the Last discourse of Jesus as found in John’s Gospel. They are a hope filled invitation to respond to the call of Jesus who desires to “be with us.”
The Pilgrim’s Way

This retreat will draw us in silence, solitude and stillness to our still centre. This is the place where God dwells in love and mystery. We will use the images of thresholds, crossroads and other aspects of pilgrimage to move us towards the cave of our heart. The spirituality underpinning this retreat is a Celtic spirituality; a spirituality of peregrination and wandering: a spirituality which responds to God’s deep call to unity.

The Hospitality of God

Through the silence of this retreat you are invited into the embrace of the Trinity and experience the Hospitality of God. Over these days we will contemplate the Rublev icon. As Henri Nouwen says: ‘the more we look at this holy image with the eyes of faith, the more we come to realise that it is painted not as a lovely decoration for a convent church, nor as a helpful explanation for a difficult doctrine, but as a holy place to enter and stay within.

“A Glimpse into the spirituality of Fr Julian Tenison Woods”

In the shadow of celebrating the 130th anniversary of his death (celebrated 2019), what better opportunity to peek into Julian’s spirituality by walking contemplatively with his writings and works to draw inspiration for our own living. This retreat will be held on the very ground that Julian walked in his ministry with early Josephites.

Celebrating the presence of God in creation

Engaging a Variety of prayer forms, music, and photography as contemplative practise, we explore Kincumber as a ‘thin’ place where heaven and earth are close. We are invited to slow down, to be fully present to our experience, to linger over moments of beauty. Participants are asked to bring a camera/ iPad or phone with camera. Living in a Christ- soaked World
Baulkham Hills
Is the incarnation a one-time and one-person Jesus of Nazareth event, or is it a cosmic event that has soaked all of history in the Divine Presence from the very beginning? This retreat explores the possibility of opening the ancient door of faith to the proper understanding of the word Christ. Over these days we will explore our own drops of experience to discover a Christ-soaked world. This Retreat is based on Richard Rohr’s book
