

JOSEPHITE ASSOCIATE CONFERENCE 2020

'Be Courageous and Full of Hope'

Mary MacKillop Precinct

4 High St Kensington, Adelaide SA

4pm Sunday 5 July 2020 – 3pm Tuesday 7 July 2020

This Gathering is an opportunity for Josephite Associates to gather, share and be inspired to continue the legacy of Mary MacKillop and Julian Tenison Woods. They carried out God's mission to meet the needs of their time: how does their story continue to stir us today, to be courageous and full of hope in our time?

CONFERENCE KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Sr Monica Cavanagh rsj

Sr Monica Cavanagh trained in education and has worked with both children and adults. She is widely recognised as having changed many peoples' lives through her teaching endeavours, her pastoral commitment and guiding people in the spiritual development of their lives. She has recently been re-elected as the Congregational Leader of the Sisters of St Joseph and also received a Medal for the Order of Australia (OAM) for service to the Catholic Church of Australia.

Madeleine Brennan

Madeleine's career is focused in education. She has taught in country and city Catholic schools and spent 26 years as a principal, which included leading Australia's first Anglican and Catholic College in Adelaide. She has a particular interest and background in exploring cultural and religious diversity and has undertaken research in this area at Trinity College Dublin in the area of Intercultural Theology and Interreligious Studies. Madeleine is continuing her academic research and is currently completing her PhD. The topic of her presentation at our upcoming conference is: 'In Company with Mary MacKillop - Engaging with Otherness, an Australian Story'.

- Tour of Mary MacKillop Museum
- Workshops
- Launch of Emblem and Key Documents
