Friendship ~ Prayer ~ Service

Dear Sisters, Associates and Friends,

A warm welcome to our Autumn/Lenten edition.

Help one another and ever strive to serve God in a generous spirit.

Prayer

O God of Creation, you have blessed us with the changing of the seasons.

*As we welcome the autumn months,
may the earlier setting of the sun remind us to take time to rest.*

May the brilliant colours of the leaves remind us of the wonder of your creation.

May the dying of summer's spirit remind us of your great promise that death is temporary, and life is eternal.

We praise you for your goodness. Amen.

UPDATE FROM THE DARDANUP ASSOCIATES

On behalf of the Dardanup Josephite Associates - happy new year! Our prayers and thoughts go especially to our eastern states brothers and sisters who have suffered loss through bushfires, drought and floods this summer season. May you truly know that God is near and watching over you.

At the beginning of 2020, Dardanup JA's made an effort to put their lives into perspective. As we reflected on past joys and successes, we became aware of the endless possibilities and challenges that lie ahead. We acknowledged our individual and group roles in God's plan for the future of our Church. Our February meeting revisited Father Tony Chiera's summer school theme – the future of the Church. Kaye, Maura, Annette, Jan and Dot each gave their own accounts of Father's presentation. We were pleasantly surprised that our own JA mission statement is so closely aligned with Pope Francis' vision for the Church of the future- "To support one another... to make a difference in our local area and so, further the Kingdom of God". Following Pope Francis' example, we pondered the question – so what can we do?

All agreed wholeheartedly to pray with our hearts, act where we have influence, ask questions and listen attentively to God's word.

Congratulations to Sr Monica Cavanagh on receiving her OAM for services to the Catholic Church of Australia in the recent Australia Day awards. Her humble acceptance of the award and her recognition of the many women who have shown leadership of the Church and in the Congregation are truly inspirational.

Finally, our love and prayers go out to Sr Denise, get well soon.

Love and warmest wishes,

Dot Savage and the Dardanup Associates (PTO)

Congregational Leader Receives Australia Day Award

(From www.sosj.org.au website)

26 January 2020

Sister Monica Cavanagh of the Sisters of Saint Joseph awarded Medal of the Order of Australia.

The Sisters of Saint Joseph are delighted to announce that Congregational Leader Sister Monica Cavanagh has been awarded a Medal of the Order of Australia (OAM) in the Australia Day Honours 2020 For Service to the Catholic Church of Australia.

Sister Monica has been part of the Congregation of the Sisters of Saint Joseph for nearly 50 years, having joined the Congregation in 1970. Having initially trained in education and working as a primary school teacher, Sister Monica has a natural passion for education.

Sister Monica went on to continue her work in education across a variety of parishes and dioceses in Australia, working with adults in the fields of faith formation and lay leadership. She is widely recognised as having changed many peoples' lives through her teaching endeavours, her pastoral commitment and guiding people in the spiritual development of their lives. Sister Monica worked tirelessly at the time of Mary MacKillop's canonisation in preparing Australians for this important moment in our history.

I am humbled and honoured to receive the Medal of the Order of Australia.

I look to the many women who have shown leadership in the Church and in our Congregation over the years, and in receiving this award I want to acknowledge them and the Sisters of Saint Joseph.

Monica Cavanagh rsj

Among her numerous achievements, Sister Monica has been the Congregational Leader of the Sisters of Saint Joseph and re-elected for a second term commencing next month, was President Catholic Religious Australia as well as serving on its Council, and acted as the facilitator of senior meetings with the Australian Catholic Bishops Conference (ACBC). She holds an MA in Pastoral Leadership, B Ed and Grad Diploma in Religious Education and studied Community Development in the Philippines and Mission Studies at the Pacific Mission Institute in Sydney. She is currently the delegate of the Australian Women Religious Leaders at Congregational Leader's International Meetings.

The people I have worked with – those who have ministered to me and those I have ministered with – and others like the brave RFS volunteers deserve this award more than me.

Monica Cavanagh rsj

Notes from the MCG

Happy New Year to all, we wish you health and happiness.

The Core Group's wish for 2020 is that two people will come forward and join us. Come and enjoy our friendly meetings and assist in preparing the newsletter for mailing - followed by a delicious lunch shared with the sisters. You will be working to help keep St Mary of the Cross Charism going. There is so much joy to give when we join together in prayer and service, both at the Group meeting and the Associates' Gatherings.

Our Christmas Gathering day went so very well. Our prayer catered to all our needs at this special time of the year. We then enjoyed high tea - and Thank You - to all the Dardanup Associates who came and joined us along with a number of sisters. Santa also made a visit with our gifts!

Louisa and Margaret have registered for the Associates' conference in July and others are also hoping to make the trip. We are looking forward to it and hope to bring much back to you all.

In January I again visited Helen Johnston and the Josephite Associates for morning tea at the Star of the Sea Parish in Esperance. It was a wonderful morning and I loved meeting everyone. Many prayers are needed for the people involved at the Active Foundation. It is being closed and there consequently there will be many out of work.

Prayer requests continue to come in and I have put them in the prayer book and sent them to North Sydney to be included in their prayers.

Please look out for each other during this very special time of the year.

Dot has produced a wonderful Lenten booklet for you all.

Marg Jones, Louisa Moore, Meg Phelan, Dot Savage

If anyone needs transport to our Gathering days please call me and I will see if I can help.

I also visited Sr Denise in hospital, please keep her in your prayers...

Living Lent

Loving Father,
I invite you into my life today and make myself available to you.
Help me to become the-best-version-of-myself by seeking your will and becoming a living example of your love in the world.
Open my heart to the areas of my life that need to change in order for me to carry out the mission and experience the joy you have imagined for my life.
Inspire me to live my faith in ways that are dynamic and engaging.
Show me how to best get involved in the life of my parish.
Make our community hungry for communion with one another as we care for the needs of the poor.
Give me courage when I am afraid,
hope when I am discouraged,
and clarity in times of decision.
Teach me to enjoy uncertainty and lead your Church to become all you imagined it would be for the people of our times.
Amen.

Autumn 2020

Read Matthew 4: 1-11

“Man does not live on bread alone, but every word that comes from the mouth of God.”

Reflect

How do I experience temptations to abuse power, position and possessions in my life and work?

Pray

Bless me with courage when I am being tested.
 With humility, when I am tempted to be arrogant.
 With a generous heart, when I am tempted to store riches.
 With inclusivity, when I am tempted to be overpowering.
 Bless me with your unfailing kindness, loving God.
 Amen

Read Matthew 17: 1-9

“There in their presence he was transfigured.”

“This is my Son, the beloved... listen to him.”

Reflect

What have been transfiguration moments in my life?

Pray

During this Season of Lent, may I listen deeply to the whispering of God in my heart.
 I ask you to bless me with your gifts of discernment and wisdom.
 Free me from all my fears and sorrows.
 Source of radiant light shine in my heart so that I may always be your Body to a world hungry for your truth, compassion, mercy and justice.
 Amen

Read John 4: 5-42

"Whoever drinks this water that I shall give will never be thirsty again: the water that I shall give will turn into a spring inside him, welling up to eternal life."

Reflect

What resonates with me in this story?
How am I challenged by Jesus teachings?

Pray

Loving God, I thank you for the gift of water.

You created water to make the fields fruitful, to refresh and cleanse my body.

May your eternal springs
quench my thirst through loving kindness.

Bless my friends and family
on their Lenten Journey.

Refresh our spirits when the way seems dry and barren.

Enliven us all with hope and gratitude. Amen

Read John 9:1-41 "Lord, I believe!"

"I have come into this world so that those without sight may see."

Reflect

How do I cope with times when I am vulnerable and not in control of a situation?

What gives me consolation and a sense of peace and purpose in those times?

Pray

Transform my heart from blindness to sight

From meanness to generosity

From resentment to forgiveness

From hunger to fullness

From yearning to ecstasy

From sadness to joy

Lord, that I may see. Amen

Read John 11:1 - 45

"I am the resurrection and the life. If anyone believes in me, even though he dies he will live, and whoever lives and believes in me will never die"

Reflect

When have I experienced the Spirit lifting me up, saving me and raising me to new life?

Pray

Lord, grace me with comfort in my sorrow,
empathy with the bereaved solidarity with those who suffer patience with those who wait and silence when words are not enough.
God of the resurrection, bless and transform me in my ordinariness to be a person alive with joy.
Amen

Palm Sunday

Palm Sunday! Be reminded of the reason for the Easter season! Amongst all the busyness that goes on reflect on Jesus & His resurrection.
