Welcome

Entrance Song    On Eagles Wings

You who dwell in the shelter of the Lord
Who abide in His shadow for life
Say to the Lord
"My refuge, my rock in whom I trust!"

Refrain

*And He will raise you up on eagles' wings
Bear you on the breath of dawn
Make you to shine like the sun
And hold you in the palm of His hand.*

The snare of the fowler will never capture you
And famine will bring you no fear
Under His wings your refuge
His faithfulness your shield.

You need not fear the terror of the night
Nor the arrow that flies by day
Though thousands fall about you
Near you it shall not come.

For to His angels He's given a command
To guard you in all of your ways
Upon their hands they will bear you up
Lest you dash your foot against a stone.

God of life, you invited our sister, Anita, to walk the Josephite journey. Take her into your hospitable and loving heart to be in the company of St Joseph, St Mary MacKillop, Julian Tenison Woods, her Parents and all the Saints. We ask this through Jesus the Way, the Truth and the Life.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading    Mary McNamara rsj

Ecclesiasticus 3:17-20; 6:5

Be gentle in carrying out your business, and you will be better loved than a lavish giver. The greater you are, the more you should behave humbly, and then you will find favour with the Lord; for great though the power of the Lord is, it is the homage of the humble that is treasured.

A kindly turn of speech multiplies one's friends and a courteous way of speaking invites many a friendly reply.

The Word of the Lord

All    Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm    Psalm 63

Response

My soul shall be filled as with a banquet

My mouth shall praise you with joy.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, Alleluia

If we die with Christ we shall live with him

If we are faithful to the end, we shall reign with him

Alleluia

Gospel Matthew 5: 1-12

When he saw the crowds he went up on the mountainside. After he had sat down his disciples gathered around him, and he began to teach.

“How happy are the poor in spirit: the reign of God is theirs.

Happy too are the sorrowing: they shall be consoled.

Happy are the lowly: they shall inherit the land.

Happy are they who hunger and thirst for goodness and right: they shall have their fill.

Happy are they who show mercy: mercy shall be theirs.

Happy are single-hearted for they shall see God.

Happy too are the peacemakers: they shall be called children of God.

Happy are those persecuted for holiness' sake: the reign of God is theirs.

Be glad and rejoice, for your reward is great in heaven”.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Prayers of Intercession    Kathleen Dawe rsj, Maree Riddler rsj

Our readings today hold for us the inspirations that Anita took to heart with such fidelity and graciousness. They became the song of her life that continues to echo within us, giving us an alluring melody that invites us to ponder ever more deeply the beauty of a life lived with and in Christ.

1. "Be gentle in carrying out your business and you will be better loved than a lavish giver."

While we give thanks for Anita's gentleness, we pray that we, too, may be gentle and humble of heart in our dealings with each other. We pray...

All    Jesus, gentle and humble of heart, hear our prayer.

2. "Happy are the peacemakers." As our world moves through these days of pandemic, unrest and poverty, may we bless our neighbourhoods, our nation and our world with an ever deeper courtesy and peace. We pray...

All    Jesus, Heart of universal peace, hear our prayer.

3. "Happy are they who mourn." Anita knew sadness in her life from childhood through to adulthood - from the death of her father through to the deaths of her mother, brothers and sisters. May our moments of difficulty and sadness be for us the growth of an ever stronger faith and deeper compassion. We pray...

All    Heart of Jesus, source of strength and comfort, hear our prayer.

4. "Happy those who hunger and thirst for goodness and right, they shall have their fill." May we be the helping hands of humanity and may we find joy in the companionship and welcome we offer to all, as we wait to join the great Communion Feast with Anita and all our Sisters and loved ones who have gone before us. We pray...

All    Eucharistic Heart of Jesus, hear our prayer.

Celebrant

We pause a moment to pray for our personal intentions. (Pause) We ask all this through Christ, our Lord, Amen.

Lamb of God

Communion Reflection    Adoro Te (Moreno)

Thanksgiving Hymn        I Found a Treasure in a field

Lord, to whom can I go?
You alone speak the words of life.
You alone on the earth
or in heaven above
are my Saviour and my Lord.

Chorus

I found the treasure in a field,
that neither time nor death can steal.
I will sell what I have,
give all that I am,
to hold this treasure as my own.

Jesus, Lord of my life,
I can ask for nothing more than to see and believe that my life lies in you,
in the kingdom of my Lord. Chorus

Prayer after Communion

Celebrant

Lord God, we have come together to celebrate the life of Anita, our sister and friend. As we continue our individual and community journey, may we always be thankful for the gift that Anita has been for us and honour her memory by emulating her example.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord.

All        Amen

Final Commendation and Farewell

Celebrant Into your hands, God of Mercies, we commend our sister Anita in the sure and certain hope that, together with those who have died in Christ, she will rise with him on the last day. We give you thanks for the blessings which you have bestowed upon Anita in this life: and our communion with all the saints in Christ. Through Christ our Lord.

All        Amen

(The coffin is sprinkled with holy water and blessed with incense)
