

Paint Outside the Lines

Who draws these lines inside our minds –

the double lines,

the crooked lines,

the boarder lines,

“don’t cross the line!”

The line of fire,

the thin red line...

these lines of fear that bind our mind?

For our palette’s bold, and the brush is fine, and freedom cries seek out your Soul and reach for stars in the wildest sky

pick up your brush

and paint outside the lines –

Yes! Let love arrive through the wildest sky and paint outside the lines...
