The Spirituality of Mary MacKillop

Wednesdays 16 March, 23 March, 30 March, 6 April, 13 April
7.00pm - 9.00pm

St Mary of the Cross MacKillop left thousands of letters and other writings. They invite us into the heart and soul of our Australian Saint and provide us with a window into her spirituality. Mary lived with a constant awareness of God and the knowledge that as His Spouse she was invited to desire only what the heart of Jesus desired. As a pioneer Australian Christian she is a model for living one’s Baptismal calling. This course is designed to reflect on the aspects of her spirituality as revealed in her writings.

Text: Pauline Wicks rsj, God Will Take Care of Us All (Strathfield St. Pauls Publications, 2009) Students will need to purchase a copy of this book. Supplementary reading will be provided to participants.
Catholic Institute of Sydney

The Catholic Institute of Sydney is an independent Catholic theological faculty supported by the Archdiocese of Sydney as a member institute of the Sydney College of Divinity. It provides courses leading to tertiary awards as well as occasional public lectures and community education courses.

Reading the Classics

This is a community education programme intended for people who wish to extend their education by reading classical works in areas such as philosophy and spirituality. No previous study is assumed, but people with a background in the subject area will be welcome. Participants will be guided through reading and discussion of the texts by an experienced teacher of the discipline.
